

Worksheet 3 – Shabad Guru

General

1. Who is the current Guru of the Sikhs?
2. Guru Gobind Singh Ji said, 'Sub Sikhah koh Hukam heh, Guru maneh ohh Granth'. Did Guru Nanak Dev Ji or any of the other Gurus also endorse this concept? (This question is NOT asking, 'how can the SGGS Ji be our Guru') [see additional material]
3. What do we bow down to, in a Gurdwara? Is it a book? What happens if in the future we ran out of paper, and we could ONLY store SGGS Ji in electronic form. What about when we hear SGGS Ji on Radio? Do we bow down to the radio aswell? Who or what is our Guru then? [see additional material]
4. Exactly what is Shabad Guru Scientifically? How is Shabad Guru related to God. Are there scientific methods or analogies we can use to explain this concept? [see additional material]
5. What are the similarities and the differences between the human Gurus and the SGGS Ji?

The Word of God in Other Religions

6. Does the concept of, Word of God = God appear in any other, world religions? [see additional material]
7. Why do different religions describe God differently? What would you say to someone who says that, 'my God is different to your God'. [see additional material]

Other Questions

8. How can we use the word of God, to provide us with an experience of God? [see additional material]
9. If a non Sikh came to a Gurdwara, how would you explain to him/her in a nutshell, the concept of God and the human Guru's and the SGGS Ji?
