

Worksheet 6 – The Purpose of Religion

1. What is the purpose of religion? Is It:

- (a) to encourage differences between people
- (b) helping people get through life
- (c) to encourage good moral values between people
- (d) to teach people right from wrong
- (e) to help people realise God

2. Why should we believe in God?

- (a) it gives us someone to help us in awkward situations
- (b) because all religions say so
- (c) it may help us to win the lottery
- (d) it's the only way to get salvation

3. How do we know GOD exists?

- (a) we don't
- (b) the earth
- (c) the existence of the universe
- (d) the design of the human body
- (e) the human spirit
- (f) the prophets of God

4. How do we develop a relationship with God?

- (a) talk to him
- (b) prayers
- (c) offer gifts and money
- (d) through meditation and Yoga
- (e) love him

5. What is the significance of bowing down to the Shri Guru Granth Sahib Ji (SGGSJ)? Is it because Sikhs:

- (a) believe in ritualism
- (b) respect the SGGSJ
- (c) are asking for something
- (d) listen to Michael Jackson's songs
- (e) agree with the message within SGGSJ
- (f) have a nice car
- (g) believe in extra terrestrial beings?

6. Why does the SGGSJ sit within an enclosed structure? What is that structure?

7. What is the significance of waving the Chaur Sahib over the SGGSJ?

8. What do we bow down to, in a Gurdwara? Is it

- (a) the covers of the book
- (b) the binding of the book
- (c) the Manjis Sahib
- (d) the Poshak
- (e) the message in the SGGSJ
- (f) something else?